Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21st of January, O. S.}}{\text{1st of February, N. S.}}$ in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Modena, Nov. 5. On Wednesday last in the Evening the Court came to their Palace in this City from Sussuolo. The Senator Motroni, whom the Republick of Lucca sent hither to settle some Disputes in Relation to the Limits of the Frontiers of the Garfagna, having produced his Credential Letters, his Serene Highness the Duke our Sovereign has appointed the Marquess Machiavelti to confer with him on that Subject. Within these few Days past the Court has received Advice, that the Dutchess of Penthievre was happily delivered of a Princess at Paris; and that the Princess, Spouse to the Prince of Albani, and Sister to our Hereditary Princess, was safely delivered of a Prince at Rome.

Rome, Nov. 6. Advice having been received at Court, that several Barbary Corsairs have within this Fortnight past appeared on the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State, the Pope has caused Orders to be dispatched to Civita Vecchia, for equipping two Pinks to cruize against those Pyrates, in the Room of his Gallies, which were lately unrigged. The Prohibition against sending Corn out of the Ecclesiastical State, is carried into Execution with the utmost Rigour.

The Court has sent circular Letters to all the Judges of the flat Country, to examine all Vagrants, and other loose or disorderly Persons, who shall come into their respective Districts, and to secure all those who are not capable of giving a good Account of themselves. It having been observed, that great Desertions have frequently happened in those Regiments where Prussian Deserters have been admitted, Orders are given that for the future none of those Deserters shall be inlisted. 'Tis said, that before the Departure of Prince Charles of Lorrain for Brussels, most of the Affairs of the Low Countries, and particularly those relating to the Barrier, were adjusted.

On Tuesday last, being the Birth Day of the Princess
